ABOUT ME

I am a recent graduate student in Software Engineering, I am 22 years old, I have been programming for 5 years and I love it. I enjoy developing complete applications with the javascript stack, I like to learn and teach what I learn, I always try to be aware of the news in the dev world. I am currently interested in real time applications with Websockets, I am also learning Typescript and React Native.
And I really want to get my first job.

PROJECTS

MemoRivals
WebApp where you can create decks of flipcards to help you memorize anything (language vocabulary, questions, formulas), then you can challenge a friend to an online memory game using your deck.
I used: React, Bulma, NodeJS, SocketIO

BrightBets
WebApp where you can bet fictitious coins on four casino-type mini-games, such as slots-machine, horse racing, etc. Some minigames are online multiplayer.
I used: Ruby on Rails, Postgresql
